Notice Concerning Revision to Dividend Forecast for the Fiscal Year Ending December 2012

The Company announces as follows that it resolved at its board of directors' meeting held today that it revises its dividend forecast for the fiscal year ending December 2012 and will not distribute year-end dividend of surplus for the fiscal year ending December 2012, on the condition that the ratio of the voting rights of the Company held by Symantec Corporation ("Symantec") and the GK Symantec Investments (the "Offeror") to the voting rights of all shareholders of the Company becomes two-thirds or more after the tender offer (the "Tender Offer") by the Offeror for the shares of Common Stock and the stock acquisition rights of the Company stated in the press release announced separately today titled "Notice Concerning Opinion on Tender Offer for Shares of the Company by GK Symantec Investments, a Subsidiary of the Company's Controlling Shareholder" (the "Opinion Press Release").

1. Reason for the dividend forecast revision

The Company resolved at its board of directors' meeting held today to express an affirmative opinion regarding the Tender Offer, to recommend that shareholders of the Company tender their shares in the Tender Offer, and to leave to the judgment of the holders of the stock acquisition rights whether to tender those rights in the Tender Offer. This resolution was adopted on the assumptions that Symantec and the Offeror are planning, through the Tender Offer and a series of other procedures after the Tender Offer, to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company, and to make the Common Stock of the Company delisted (for details, please see the Opinion Press Release).

Until now, the Company has maintained a basic policy of paying stable shareholder returns while improving its financial basis and increasing internal reserve for business deployment, positioning profit returns for shareholders as one of the most important tasks of management. However, due to the reason stated above, if the Company distributes year-end dividend with a record date of December 31, 2012, there is a possibility that the economic outcomes would be different between shareholders who tendered their shares in the Tender Offer and those who did not. Thus, the Company resolved at its board of directors' meeting held today to revise the dividend forecast for the fiscal year ending December 2012, and not to distribute year-end dividend for the fiscal year ending December 2012 on the condition that the ratio of the voting rights of the Company held by Symantec and the Offeror to the voting rights of all shareholders of the Company becomes two-thirds or more after the Tender Offer.
